“Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.”

September 2026

The chosen neglected part of True Christianity Living Christianity for HIS NAME'S SAKE

He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God.

And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

(John 21:17-19)

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. (Matthew 19:29)

Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. (Matthew 24:9)

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. (Mark 13:13)

Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. (Luke 6:22)

But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. (Luke 21:12)

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. (Luke 21:17)

But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. (John 15:21)

But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. (Acts 9:15-16)

I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. (1 John 2:12)

Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. (3 John 1:7)

And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. (Revelation 2:3)

Jack M. Skinner

Brother and Sister,

Thank you for your donation to International Bible Association and especially for your prayers. I wish to advise each of you the reason why Brother Skinner made the decision to sell the property in Dallas, Texas and relocated to Joplin, Missouri; to create additional funds allowing IBA to continue our search and support for lost souls both in Madagascar and here in the USA. Buildings do not save souls, humans do not save souls; sowing the Seed (Word of God) by His laborers can lead a soul to eternal life!

With the increased cost of goods and living expenses I advise each one to obey the Word of God and support those who they are responsible to provide for before any giving to IBA! “But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal. And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.” (1 Samuel 15:21-22) “But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.” (1 Timothy 5:8) We should all be attempting to make Heaven and take other souls with us especially our family by forgiving, forgetting and supporting!

Sorry, I have an appointment!

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:”

(Hebrews 9:27)

“Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.”

(Peter 4:1-5)

“No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.”

(2 Timothy 2:4)

Jack M. Skinner

It is not what we humans collect here on earth during life but what we lay up in Heaven. “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” (Matthew 6:19-21)

Look around and take an inventory of your treasures what you can transport to Heaven and what will be left behind. Every time I view a sign posted “Estate Sale” I am reminded that I need to take an inventory of my procession and inquire of my Lord who has needs in their life more than me. I travel on the streets often to see if there is some soul in need and share a Gospel of John with a food card and/or cash inserted. You might respond: “They are there because they choose to be!” Yes, they may be but one time in Jack M. Skinner’s life he was on the streets of Lincoln, Nebraska as a lost soul because I chose to be and tried to take my life because I thought nobody cared. No Body cared because No Body ever shared with me the true story of the Love of God until I meet a German girl, Margaret Irene Krueger, who at the age of three arrived in the USA in 1951. Margaret shared with me the Gospel as a teenager. On September 11, 1966 Margaret and I were married. Margaret cared more about people than she ever cared about “things”! Margaret Irene Skinner made her final appointment on September 28, 2009.

Matthew 9:11-13 – Luke 6:35 - 2 Peter 3:9 – 1 Corinthians 6:9-11

Please read your Bible and allow God to reveal to you how He is kind to the evil and the unthankful and the many who follow Him for the loaves and fishes, He still feeds them being desirous that they too may acquire eternal life because The Lord is not willing that any should perish but that ALL should come to REPENTANCE and such were all of us!

MORE ABOUT JESUS

1887 by Eliza Hewitt

1 More about Jesus I would know,
More of His grace to others show;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

More, more about Jesus,
More, more about Jesus;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

2 More about Jesus let me learn,
More of His holy will discern;
Spirit of God, my teacher be,
Showing the things of Christ to me.

More, more about Jesus,
More, more about Jesus;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

3 More about Jesus, in His Word,
Holding communion with my Lord;
Hearing His voice in every line,
Making each faithful saying mine.

More, more about Jesus,
More, more about Jesus;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

4 More about Jesus on His throne,
Riches in glory all His own;
More of His kingdom's sure increase;
More of His coming, Prince of Peace.

More, more about Jesus,
More, more about Jesus;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

As a brilliant student, Eliza Hewitt was the class valedictorian when she graduated from Girls' Normal School in Philadelphia. Her high school trained young ladies to become teachers upon graduation. Thus, Miss Hewitt became a public school teacher in the town where she was born and lived her entire life.

After a short time, however, Miss Hewitt had to leave teaching due to a spinal injury. The common understanding was that the injury resulted while she was disciplining a student. The unruly boy struck her back with a heavy slate! The painful blow severely injured her back. Bedridden due to the pain, she could no longer do the normal, everyday things she had enjoyed.

Those months of suffering following the injury, Miss Hewitt spent much time with God in prayer and in His Word. She desired to express to others her special relationship with Him. As a result, she began writing poems for children and for Sunday School resources. When the heavy, restrictive cast required for her recovery was removed, Miss Hewitt found that, in her time of suffering and rehabilitation, God used something grievous to bring forth blessing in her life. How excited she was to tell others!

Though Eliza Hewitt's spinal injury took her from the job she had trained for, the months of pain and deprivation served a greater purpose. If she had merely become angry and bitter, God could not have used her as effectively. But because she discerned that He had a plan for her life and sought Him during her difficulty, God was able to reach more people through her hymns than she could have reached in her classroom!

MORE ABOUT JESUS

Brother Jack M. Skinner asks you this question: "After you leave church have you become More like Jesus than when you arrived? Has your congregation become an influence to learn More About Jesus or more about fitting in with some social program for human fellowship?"
